

Alejandro García Seimandi

Attorney at Law graduated from the Escuela Libre de Derecho in 1996, with the thesis "The Mexican Customs Tariff System". He is certified in tariff classification by the Mexican Ministry of Education and has attended tariff classification training at the World Customs Organization.

His practice is devoted to Mexican customs, import duty and international trade matters, especially in: tariff classification, customs valuation, IMMEX temporary imports, free trade agreements, antidumping fees, sanitary registry and permits. He has wide experience in legal advisory, customs due diligence, compliance review, advisory during customs authority audits, representing clients in administrative and judicial proceedings (customs administrative procedures, administrative appeals, tax-lawsuits, constitutional trial), assisting clients on filing administrative requests concerning international trade and customs matters before various authorities (importer's registry, sanitary registry, origin certificates, permits).

He is member of the Board of the Mexican Corporate Counsel Association (ANADE). He is part of the Tariff Classification Council of the Mexican Tax Administration Service (SAT). He has been appointed as panelist under Chapter XIX of the North America Free Trade Agreement. He is also a member of the Mexican Bar and the International Chamber of Commerce and participates in the Mexican Institute of Public Accountants.

He has taught customs topics at the Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM), the Universidad Iberoamericana (UIA) the Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey (ITESM) and the Escuela de Clasificación Arancelaria. He has given conferences on trade and customs topics at the above mentioned institutions and at the Asociación de Maquiladoras y Exportadoras de Chihuahua, the National Association of Importers and Exporters, the U.S.- Mexico Law Institute, and the U.S.-Mexico Chamber of Commerce, among others. Coauthor of the book Conocimientos básicos de Comercio Exterior published by the Mexican Institute of Public Accountants. He has published articles in specialized magazines such as Práctica Fiscal, IMMEXPORTA and Estrategia Aduanera, as well as in newspapers as El Economista and Excélsior.