

Amanda Barlow

Regional Vice President

Amanda Barlow is the Regional Vice President for Roanoke Trade's Western Region. Amanda is responsible for managing client relationships and directing sales initiatives with a focus on quality of service to ensure we deliver a superior client experience that serves as a sustainable differentiator for Roanoke in her region. Amanda seeks new business opportunities, and contributes to developing product and technology initiatives to ensure we are always meeting our clients' needs and covering their risk exposures. She monitors underwriting practices, and ensures our brokerage operation is run consistently and efficiently. Amanda is a licensed insurance broker who specializes in ATA Carnets, cargo insurance, customs bonds, errors & omissions, and property & casualty for international trade and transportation specialists.

In 2018, Amanda was appointed to the U.S. Department of Commerce's District Export Council (DEC) of Southern California, one of more than 60 DEC's that exist throughout the country to support the U.S. Government's export promotion efforts. This appointment is a direct result of her over 15 year career in providing ATA Carnet expertise to US exporters.

Prior to joining Roanoke in 2014, Amanda was the Marketing Director for the Carnet and Trade Services Department of US Council for International Business (USCIB).
