

Guy Fox, Chair Emeritus,
District Export Council of Southern California

Guy Fox is Chairman Emeritus of the District Export Council of Southern California, appointed by the Secretary of Commerce of the United States .. Fox is also Chairman of the Board for the International Seafarers Center for the Ports of Long Beach and Los Angeles.

Fox has been actively involved in the international trade community of Southern California and is considered one of the most influential individuals in international trade. Fox has appeared on CNN News, Bloomberg News, and the Art Levine talk show speaking on issues with international trade.

Fox is the recipient of many international trade awards including the Staley T. Olafson Bronze Plaque Award the most prestigious award in International Trade, Marjorie Shostak Award from the Foreign Trade Association, Distinguished Service Award for World Trade Week, Honoree for the Maritime Industry Salute and the Guy Fox Award named after him by the Women In International trade, He also received an award from the District Export Council of Southern California for exceptional leadership and commitment to trade. Fox was awarded a “Certificate of Appreciation” by the Consul General of the Republic of Korea Hyun-nyung Kim for his vision and exemplary leadership and enhancing the relations between the Republic of Korea and the United States, and for his invaluable support for the promotion of the Korea-US Free Trade Agreement.

Fox has received a Presidential Key Executive Master of Business Administration Degree from Pepperdine University, and is a Licensed Customhouse Broker, and a certificate of Completion from the International Institute of Studies and Training, Tokyo, Japan on the economics of Japan and holds California State Teaching Credential.