

Josefina Khalidy
Principal, Maritime Business Retention
Port of San Diego

Josefina Khalidy is the Principal of Maritime Business for the Port of San Diego. She oversees cargo, cruise, fisheries, and maritime industrial properties as part of the Port's maritime portfolio. Josefina joined the Port of San Diego in 2016, after an enriching time spent at the Pacific Maritime Association (PMA), the organization that represents maritime employers on the West Coast. Josefina has a Juris Doctor from California Western School of Law with a focus on Admiralty (Maritime Law), International Law, and Law of the Sea. She earned her Bachelor's degree in Political Science and International Relations from the University of California, San Diego.

