

Tom Good
Vice President, Sales, U.S. Mainland
Matson

Tom Good is Vice President, Sales, U.S. Mainland for Matson, an ocean shipping and transportation company servicing international and domestic trade lanes. He is responsible for overseeing ocean services sales activities for Hawaii, Guam, Alaska, Micronesia and the South Pacific.

During his 30-year career with Matson, which began in Chicago, Tom has managed the company's corporate customer service center, overseen public affairs/community relations efforts in Southern California, and directed sales activity.

Tom is an advisory board member of the U.S. Veterans Homeless Initiative and has served on the Pacific Merchant Shipping Association's Southern California steering committee. Tom is past chair of the International Trade Education Foundation (ITEP) where he received the Bill Stein Leadership Award. He was a Long Beach Ronald MacDonald House "A Few Good Men" honoree and was formerly Chair of the Steamship Association of Southern California. Tom has served on the boards of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, the International Seafarer Center, and the Los Angeles/Long Beach Propeller Club. He also served on the City of Los Angeles Blue-Ribbon Panel on safety and productivity at the Long Beach/Los Angeles port complex.

During his involvement with the Matson Foundation, Tom directed funding to Long Beach charitable organizations including the Long Beach Ronald MacDonald House, Miller's Children's Hospital, Long Beach Historical Society, Boys and Girls Clubs of Long Beach, and Long Beach BLAST – Better Learning After School.

A Boston native, Tom received a Bachelor's Degree in English from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst and played on the school's baseball team. He has coached Little League baseball and youth basketball teams for many years, on which his three sons excelled. He is married to Rhonda Brauer, a communications/public relations executive.